

This is a must clinic to learn more about Western Dressage.

This Sunday, December 14th, Y Not Farms will have a WD clinic with clinician Lorraine Stubbs and possibly assisting Leslie Kennedy.

Joyce Cameron will ride two horses, one in 3rd level and one in 1st level WD

Lorraine is an EC FEI A judge and senior judge with WDAA

Leslie is judge for our EC Gold Show July 4, 2015 and is an approved WD judge

Start time is 12:45 Sunday

Cost is $25 with coffee, tea, treats provided

All be seen from our lounge overlooking indoor arena and all discussions, Q & A will be in the lounge.

The purpose of this WD clinic is to serve as an information clinic with 2 test rides as examples of what to look for to attain a good WD test.

Further, appropriate dress, bridles, saddles, protocol to engage in WD will be reviewed by Lorraine Stubbs.

Ynotfarms.ca is setting out to promote cross training-classical dressage, WD and reining with emphasis HERE on the merits of participating in WD.

Weather will be plus 0 Celsius starting Friday through Sat and Sun with possible rain on Sunday so road conditions should be good.

The WD clinic is a go for Sunday.

Please confirm if wish to attend, payment best made on attendance.

Y Not Farms

(519) 538-0510 or ynotfarms@ynotfarms.ca

137079 Grey Rd 12

Meaford, ON N4L 1N6

Y Not Farms is approximately 2 kms north of Grey Rd 40 on 137079 Grey Rd 12 at the southwest end of Meaford Township.

Y Not Farms is one hour north of Orangeville

To Intra West Blue Mountain go Grey 40 east to Hwy 26 east to Collingwood, 20 min

